

Hi 55 Plus Deaf and Hard of Hearing Gang!

I hope you survived the brutal weather (below zero) over the Valentine's weekend. I know it is going to be good weather tomorrow, 44 degrees.

This is a short notice but I do hope you remember about Wednesday's social gathering (which occurs every 3rd Wednesday of the month) at the Braintree Mall in the food court area for lunchtime. Please google/search/look online for directions and location if you don't know where this event is located.

Hope to see you soon! Come when you can, we tend to finish socializing about 2:00pm-3pm.

Stay warm,

Pauline Raiche
